800.323.7803

The sun shines bright on this charming meeting venue on the grounds of one of Kentucky's most revered historic sites. The visitor's center at My Old Kentucky Home State Park, located in Bardstovwn, mirrors the stately elegance and gracious ambiance of the Federal Hill mansion a short walk away. An expansive lobby filled with natural light is the prelude to the Great Hall, the main meeting space for the visitor's center. This spacious room provides an airy, comfortable atmosphere. Outside the Great Hall is the open-air event plaza, enclosed in a white-pillared colonnade that radiates toward Federal Hill and not far from the visitor's center is another elegant open-air pavilion known as the Rotunda.
